Dear friends,
Hare Krishna.

Ratha Yatra and Harinam Sankirtan in Beaverton Parade - Sat, Sep 9th

We are happy to announce that The Lordships Jagannath, Baladeva and Subhadra have decided to come to the Beaverton Parade to give Their mercy to the onlookers!

We will now be having Jagannatha Ratha yatra again this year in addition to the Harinama Sankirtan!

The theme of the parade is "Be Green in '17" (i.e. eco-friendly, green energy, reducing waste, etc.).

In keeping with the theme, please follow the dress code listed below.

Dress code:

A) Women: Saris in green color. If you don't have a green color sari, please try to borrow from your friends or send us an email and we will try to arrange one for you.

B) Men: All white kurta with white dhoti or white pajama. Please don't wear jeans or shorts. Also, please avoid bright hats/big backpacks etc.
that distract from the group's overall appearance.

C) Children: Indian outfits in green color. Boys are encouraged to wear dhoti/kurta.

charity of choice.

SYNOPSIS: Hare Krishna! is a feature length documentary film on the life of Srila Prabhupada - the 70-year-old Indian Swami who arrived in America without support or money in the turbulent 1960s. It explores how he ignited the worldwide cultural revolution of spiritual consciousness, known as the Hare Krishna movement. Using never-before-seen archival footage, Prabhupada's own recorded words, interviews with his early followers and scholars, and through beautiful re-enactments, the film takes the audience behind-the-scenes of a cultural movement born in the artistic and intellectual scene of New York's Bowery, the hippie mecca of Haight Ashbury, and the Beatle mania of London, to meet the Swami who started it all.

Directors: The film is directed by John and Jean Griesser (Yadubara Dasa and Visakha Devi Dasi), veteran filmmakers who have teamed up with professional filmmakers from all around the country to create the film.

Volunteers welcome - plenty of opportunities
