Sep 7th 2018

Dear friends,
Hare Krishna.

Ratha yatra - Sat, Sep 8th, 10 AM to Noon

By the divine arrangement of Lord Jagannatha Himself, there will be a grand chariot (ratha) for the Lord's procession in the Beaverton City Parade tomorrow.

This special chariot has been hand built in Los Angeles by a dedicated devotee who takes it to various ratha yatras all over the country.

The ratha is on its way from Los Angeles to Seattle and will make a brief stopover at Portland for the Lord's yatra. The ratha is 14 ft wide, 17 ft long and 26 ft tall with the canopy up.

Please do join us in this very special ratha yatra festival and pull the chariot of Lord Jagannatha in the Beaverton City Parade.

We will chant the holy names of the Lord and distribute prasadam while taking part in the parade. Also, prasadam will be served to all devotees at the end of the parade.

Here are a few pictures of the ratha when it was serving in ratha yatras at other cities:

Details of the ratha:

"The temple-shaped chariots in the Puri Rath Yatra festival have special meaning. The concept is explained in the holy text, the Katha Upanishad. The chariot represents the body, and the deity inside the chariot is the soul. Wisdom acts as the charioteer that controls the mind and its thoughts.

There's a famous Odia song that says that the chariot merges and becomes one with Lord Jagannath during the festival. Simply touching the chariot or rope that pulls it is believed to bring prosperity."
